

I live in an area where local radio stations don't provide adequate traffic and weather services. XM Radio's weather info is very important to me, since it can be received from anywhere in the country. Please don't spot XM from providing me with that info!